Sunriver Music Festival Qualifies for Matching Challenge Grant

The Sunriver Music Festival is pleased to announce that it has qualified for a $25,000 matching challenge grant from the James F. and Marion L. Miller Foundation.

Starting on October 1, 2011, any new donation or increased donation from individual contributors or businesses can qualify to have their donation matched with funds from the Miller Foundation. The grant period ends on September 30, 2012.

“This matching challenge grant is very exciting for the Festival,” explains Jack McDonnell, the Festival’s Board Treasurer. “We had to wrap up the fiscal year in the black to qualify for this challenge grant, and fortunately we’ve had a financially successful year. This grant will allow us to build up the Festival’s reserves and help us through tough financial challenges we may encounter in future years.”

Letters will be mailed to the Festival’s members announcing and explaining the Miller matching challenge grant in November this year.
